

THE MEMPHIS APPEAL.

ESTABLISHED 1840.

MEMPHIS, TENN., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1886.

VOL. XLVI--NO. 221

Gladstone arrived in London Sunday. He is in good health.

The Knights Templar, with their gay uniforms, have taken St. Louis by storm.

The President and Mrs. Cleveland are expected to arrive in Washington Wednesday evening.

It is stated that the Czar now wishes the Prince of Montenegro to take the Bulgarian throne.

In the debate last night Mr. Gladstone's voice was distressingly hoarse, but he spoke with his usual energy.

It is understood that Sir William White, British Minister at Bucharest, will soon succeed Sir Edward Thorneys as Ambassador to Turkey.

A bill for closing taverns in Irish towns with a population of 10,000 at an earlier hour Saturday will be introduced in the House next session.

Judge Donahue definitely, but firmly, checked off the professional gradjor yesterday when he said: "I shall strictly adhere to the law, which provides that a juryman serving on our trials is exempt for the succeeding two years."

CONSUL GILBERT, in Tuscany, in a report to the Secretary of State, gives a series of tables showing rapid falling off in the imports of American petroleum and a corresponding increase in that of Russian since 1880.

GLADSTONE was enthusiastically received when he appeared on the floor of the House of Commons yesterday, and Parnell's vigorous plea for immediate action in behalf of Ireland created a profound impression.

Sixty Spanish insurgents submitted at Vallecas yesterday. The fugitives destroyed the railway between Alcazar and Tarazona. The rebellion failed through the refusal of the Alcazar and Vaca de la Sierra to join the revolt.

The Hon. Allen G. Thurman, who is a Cincinnati, O., on legal business, was surrounded at his hotel last night by the Thurman Club, and he made a brief address, in which he said: "I will never hold an office again."

The Treasury Department has decided that Indians living in the United States near the Canadian frontier are not entitled to the privilege of purchasing horses and cattle in Canada and importing them into the United States free of duty.

The conviction which was Thursday cannot be too painful in the election of a Legislative ticket. A live, progressive city such as Memphis should have one except wide awake, enterprising men to represent it.

The issue of standard silver dollars from the mints during the week ended September 18th, was $1,114,935. The issue during the corresponding period of last year was $64,493. The shipments of fractional silver coin since September 1st amount to $738,534.

M. STAMBULOFF, in an interview, said: "The man elected in place of Prince Alexander, who ever he may be, will be overthrown if he tries to Russify the Bulgarian people or to abolish the constitution. We wish to live in friend and win, not in subjection to Russia."

SECRETARY MANNING left the Mineral Springs Hotel on Saturday for Buffalo, and started from there for Albany yesterday morning. He will have a conference with the President in that city on Wednesday. He stated while at Buffalo that he had received no offer of the Assistant Secretaryship, and would not accept it if it had been offered.

A WASHINGTON correspondent says: "Young Jim Blaine, a boy married, is well known among the Washington people. Jim has frequently painted H street a blood red color while his father was always dreaming of occupying the Presidential chair." James Jr., it seems, is not a prohibitionist outside of Maine. He follows his father so closely in this respect as in some others.

There is no doubt that it has for a long time past been the intention of Secretary Lamar and Secretary Edmonson, with the approval of the President, to send to Florida all the Apache Indians. There were many indications that this programme was definitely agreed upon after mature consideration. The objection now raised is that there are in all about 200 of the Apaches who have to be taken to the Florida reservation, which is altogether too small for such a purpose.

The telegraph today announces the opening of the Baltimore and Ohio line. It is the greatest experiment in railroading since the West Shore and Hudson River line was opened, and will cost probably considerably more than $100 million. I prove at least that the true axis of North and South travel is an well defined and fixed as the axis of East and West travel by the Mohawk Valley, and that there is no other axis to parallel the present Southern routes till the Cumberland Valley is found, which similarly possess dual railroad lines.

PLEADING FOR ACTION.

PARNELL AND GLADSTONE MAKE VIGOROUS SPEECHES

Begging That Irish Tenants Shall Not Be Left to Their Fate.

THE BROTHERS AT NASHVILLE Great Enthusiasm Manifested by Their Supporters.

SPECIAL TO THE APPEAL.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., September 20.—Bob and Al arrived here last night from Murfreesboro and were tendered an ovation by citizens. They put up a speech from the balcony of the Maxwell House, and both made speeches from the balcony of the hotel and afterward held a reception in different rooms of the hotel. Great enthusiasm by their supporters.

Lord Lansdowne announced that the government would, at the next session, introduce a bill facilitating the sale of land, reducing land costs. This announcement was received with cheers.

Mr. Michael H. Beach, Chief Secretary for Ireland, replying to an interrogatory by Parnell, said that since the 13th of June 1000 families comprising 3211 persons had been evicted in Ireland. Of these 600 families, including 2626 persons, had been admitted by the former premises caretaker.

Mr. Parnell, in moving it to a second reading of his bill, said the recent elections proved the mandate of the House of Commons that it should be willing to do what it could for the wants of Ireland equally as if it were a Irish Parliament. [Cheers.] It was voted to stand aside the amendment.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.

Bob was introduced by the Hon. J. D. Richardson. When Bob rose the enthusiasm of the crowd reached fever heat and they yelled and shouted for many minutes. Bob said Al had just spoken some old speech, reminiscing him of the man who ate the box of axle grease and said it was the rancid cheese he ever chewed. Bob said the Republican party was on trial for its crimes, in trying to overturn the constitutional government. He said he desired no man to vote for him except they thought he was right.</